
IN MEMORY OF

DETECTIVE ANTHONY J. VENDITTI

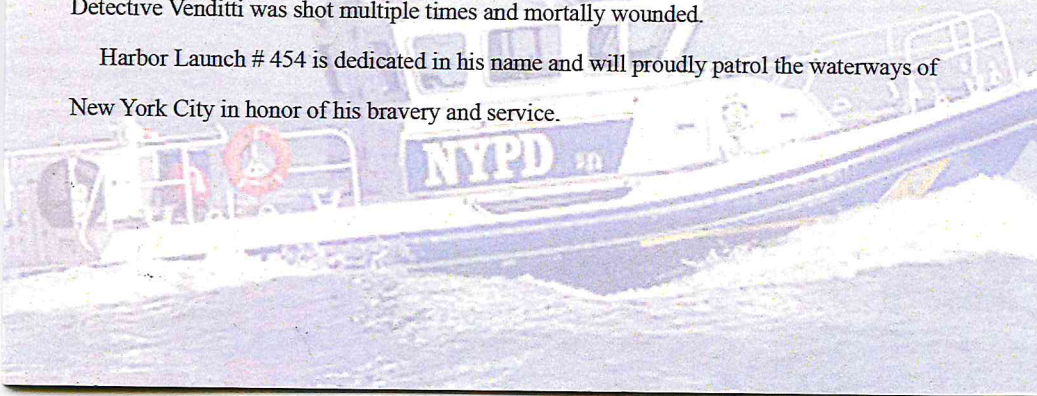

LAUNCH 454

On the night of January 21st, 1986, Detective Anthony J. Venditti, assigned to Organized Crime Control Bureau, was conducting an investigation into the activities of known organized crime members in the area of Myrtle Avenue in Ridgewood Queens.

During the investigation, Detective Venditti was confronted, in a sudden encounter, with the three organized crime members that he was surveilling. Without warning they opened fire. Detective Venditti was shot multiple times and mortally wounded.

Harbor Launch # 454 is dedicated in his name and will proudly patrol the waterways of New York City in honor of his bravery and service.
